The Sadducees don't believe in the resurrection because they can't find it literally taught in the Scriptures. To ridicule this belief they fix on a law that requires a woman to marry her husband's brother if he should die without leaving an heir (see Genesis 38:8; Deuteronomy 25:5).

But God's Law wasn't given to ensure the raising up of descendants to earthly fathers. The Law was given, as Jesus explains, to make us worthy to be "children of God"—sons and daughters born of His Resurrection "God our Father," today's Epistle tells us, has given us "everlasting encouragement" in the Resurrection of Christ. Through His grace, we can now direct our hearts to the love of God.

As the Maccabees suffered for the Old Law, we will have to suffer for our faith in the New Covenant. Yet He will guard us in the shadow of His wing, keep us as the apple of His eye, as we sing in today's Psalm. The Maccabean persecutors marveled at their courage. We too can glorify the Lord in our sufferings and in the daily sacrifices we make. And we have even greater cause than they for hope. One who has risen from the dead has given us His word—that He is the God of the living, that when we awake from the sleep of death we will behold His face and will be content in His presence (see Psalm 76:6; Daniel 12:2).

Yours in Christ,

Crusade Prayer (109) For the Gift of Trust

O my dearest Jesus, Help me to trust You. To trust in Your Promise to come again. To accept the Truth of Your Second Coming. To trust in the Promise of God the Father when He said He would give You Your Kingdom. Help me to trust in Your Teachings, in Your Plan to save the world. Help me to accept, with Grace, Your Gifts. Help me to trust in You, so that I lose my fear and so that I can allow Your Love to flood my heart and soul...Amen

To Rise Again

With their riddle about seven brothers and a childless widow, the Sadducees in today's Gospel mock the faith for which seven brothers and their mother die in the First Reading. The Maccabean martyrs chose death—tortured limb by limb, burned alive—rather than betray God's Law. Their story is given to us in these last weeks of the Church year to strengthen us for endurance—that our feet might not falter but remain steadfast on His paths. The Maccabees died hoping that the "King of the World" would raise them to live again forever (see 2 Maccabees 14:46).....see reverse
