Sirach also compares the testing of our words to clay fired in a kiln—if properly prepared, a useful vessel emerges; but if the clay is not fully dried, it will break apart in the extreme heat. In a similar way, Jesus insists that a person speaks “out of the abundance of the heart.” He too compares our speech, whether good or bad, to what grows on a tree: “For no good tree bears bad fruit, nor again does a bad tree bear good fruit.” Both readings urge us to make wholesome speech a habit. After all, much about who we are is brought to light through what we say. But there’s an additional step: The Lord is asking us to look inward, to examine our hearts and fill them with the “good treasure” that God desires. Why do purity of heart and speech matter so much? Because, as Jesus declares elsewhere: “by your words you will be justified, and by your words you will be condemned” (Matthew 12:37). They matter because they help to decide our final judgment, and this is where the Second Reading comes in. Paul reminds us that God will destroy death forever, and if we are to share in this victory and live forever with the Lord, then we must take all steps necessary to give our hearts and lips to what is good.

Crusade Prayer (102) To sustain faith and belief in God’s Message for the world

Dearest Jesus, when I am down, lift me up. When I doubt, enlighten me. When I am in sorrow, show me Your Love. When I criticize, help me to remain silent. When I judge another in public, seal my lips. When I utter blasphemies, in Your Name, redeem me and bring me back into Your protection. When I lack courage, give me the sword I need to do battle and save the souls You desire. When I resist Your Love help me to surrender and abandon myself, completely, within Your Loving care. When I wander away, help me to find the Path of Truth. When I question Your Word, give me the answers I seek. Help me to be patient, loving and kind, even to those who curse You. Help me to forgive those who offend me and give me the grace I need to follow You to the ends of the earth...Amen.

Heart and Mouth

In today’s readings we hear Jesus speaking in Galilee as well as a Jewish sage named Sirach writing in Jerusalem more than a century earlier. The two of them touch upon a single truth: The words that come out of us make known the hidden thoughts within us. Speech reveals the secrets of the heart. Sirach teaches that speaking is “the test of men” and their character. One who is upright will utter words that are truthful and encouraging to others. But one whose heart is cluttered with “refuse” will be exposed, since the “fruit” of his mouth speaks volumes about the “tree” that produces it. cont’d on reverse.

The Season of Lent
Lent is the season of spiritual preparation before Easter. It begins on Ash Wednesday and during Lent, we observe a period of fasting, prayer, almsgiving, repentance self-denial, and spiritual discipline. We are called to reflect on the suffering and death of Jesus, our Lord. The 40-day period of Lent is based on two episodes of spiritual testing in the Bible: the 40 years of wilderness wanderings by the Israelites after the exodus from Egypt (Numbers 33:38 and Deuteronomy 1:3) and the Temptation of Jesus after he spent 40 days fasting in the wilderness (Matthew 4:1-11; Mark 1:12-13; Luke 4:1-13).

Sunday 3:00 pm Mass
As we can attend the Sunday Mass to the full capacity, there is no need for the Mass at 3:00pm on Sundays, so from next week onwards there will not be a Mass at 3:00 pm on Sundays

Ash Wednesday Mass
Bezanson: 5:00 pm and Sexsmith: 7:00 pm
