All things are put under His feet so that He can restore to humanity the glory for which we were made from the beginning, the glory lost by sin. He tasted death that we might be raised to life in the Trinity that His name might be made glorious over all the earth. Through the Son, we have gained grace and access in the Spirit to the Father, as Paul boasts in today's Epistle (see Ephesians 2:18).

The Spirit, the Love of God, has been poured out into our hearts—a Spirit of adoption, making us children of the Father once more (see Romans 8:14–16). This is the Spirit that Jesus promises in today's Gospel. His Spirit comes as divine gift and anointing (see 1 John 2:27), to guide us to all truth, to show us “the things that are coming,” the things that were meant to be from before all ages—that we will find peace and union in God, we will share the life of the Trinity, we will dwell in God as He dwells in us (see John 14:23; 17:21).

Yours in Christ,

Scott Hahn, Phd

Crusade Prayer (37) For Unification of all God's children

O dear Jesus, unite all Your beloved followers in love, so that we can spread the Truth of Your Promise for Eternal Salvation throughout the whole world. We pray that those lukewarm souls, afraid of offering themselves to You in mind, body and soul, will drop their armor of pride and open their hearts to Your love and become part of Your holy family on earth. Embrace all those lost souls, dear Jesus, and allow our love, as their brothers and sisters, to lift them from the wilderness and take them with us into the Bosom, Love and Light of the Holy Trinity. We place all our hope, trust and love in Your Holy Hands. We beg you to expand our devotion so that we can help save more souls. Amen.

Glorious Processions

In today's Liturgy we're swept through time in glorious procession—from before earth and sky were set in place to the coming of the Spirit upon the new creation, the Church. We begin in the heart of the Trinity, as we listen to the testimony of Wisdom in today's First Reading. Eternally begotten, the first-born of God, He is poured forth from of old in the loving delight of the Father.

Through Him the heavens were established, the foundations of the earth fixed. From before the beginning, He was with the Father as His “Craftsman,” the artisan by which all things were made. And He took special delight, He tells us, in the crowning glory of God's handiwork—the human race, the “sons of men.”

In today's Psalm, He comes down from heaven, is made a little lower than the angels, comes among us as “the Son of Man” (see Hebrews 2:6–10)...cont'd on reverse.

Help the Ukrainian Families in GP

The Grande Prairie Rotary Club is in need of volunteer assistance and donations to help Ukrainian refugee families resettle in the Grande Prairie area. The number of arrivals is growing and much help is needed in welcoming and assisting these newcomers. If you are able to provide temporary housing (one to 2 months) assist families in registering for drivers license, school and banking, or with donations of household goods your help would be greatly appreciated. If you can host a family send an email to the GP Rotary
